The Western Kentucky Highland Festival is not responsible for unattended booths, or makes no guarantee as to attendance, weather conditions, or amount of sales made by customers.

The products listed in the "Product sold" section above will be all that can be sold from the booth or booth space. No alcoholic beverages will be permitted on the park grounds. Each vendor or customer must comply with State and Health Department laws and all ordinances governing food handling.

Each vendor must supply proof of Insurance (liability) to cover His or Her operations. This is to be mailed with contact. Booth rentals will be made on a first come, first served basis. No refunds will be made on booth rentals after July 31, 2008 and cancellation requests must be made in writing. The Western Kentucky Highland Festival will permit only one unit on a site, no exceptions.

Lessee agrees that photographs, pictures, slides, and movies taken or made by the Lesser or its assigns in connection with Lessee's involvement in the Western Kentucky Highland Festival, or any reproductions of the same, as well as Lessee's name, may be used in any manner by Lessor, or by any person, corporation, partnership, or association authorized by Lessor.
